The gold-standard rating scale for executive function testing—now with more report options!

PARiConnect Reports

- A new score report includes a score summary table, a score profile, item responses, and an optional ADHD score profile.
- The updated interpretive report includes:
  - Information from the score report.
  - Detailed interpretive text for BRIEF2 clinical scales and index scores.
  - Information about EF and ADHD—now together in one report.
  - Intervention recommendations
  - Specific accommodations and supports for 504 plans or IEPs.
  - A link to a free, updated Goal-Plan-Do-Review worksheet.
- Reports feature an updated, more modern look and feel.

Interventions Handouts

- Available via PARiConnect after a BRIEF2 Score or Interpretive Report is generated.
- Developed by the BRIEF2 authors specifically for parents, teachers, and students.
- An overall summary handout describes the executive functions and offers general tips for improvement.
- Additional handouts provide in-depth information about the area of executive dysfunction and evidence-based supports and accommodations.
- Written in easy-to-understand language.
- Generated as PDF files that can be downloaded, printed, or emailed.
- Useful for feedback meetings with parents and students.
