

Help clients solve problems and make career decisions

Identify individuals who may benefit from career counseling assistance and help them challenge their negative career thoughts and take action to make positive career decisions.

Learn more at parinc.com/CTI

Purpose Assists in career problem solving and decision making

Age High school students, college students, and adults

Format Paper and pencil; online administration and scoring via PARiConnect

Time 7–15 minutes to administer; 15 minutes to score

Qual B

PARiConnect

Identify those who would benefit from career counseling

The CTI is a self-administered and objectively scored assessment that is designed to identify individuals who would benefit from career counseling assistance. It helps to identify, challenge, and alter negative thoughts that interfere with effective career decision-making.

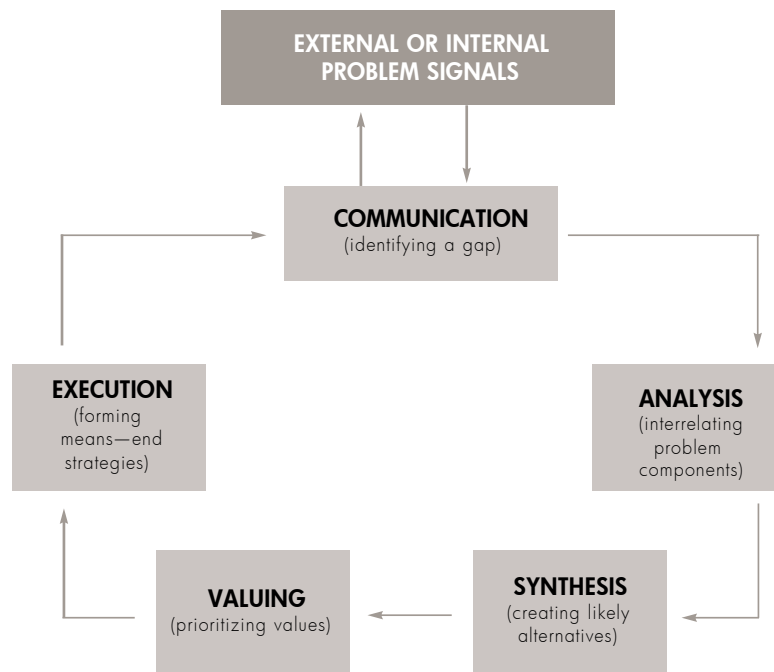

Pinpoint the nature of career problems

- Measures negative thoughts in career choice.
- Identifies the specific nature of negative thinking.
- Includes three construct scales: Decision-Making Confusion, Commitment Anxiety, and External Conflict.

Help clients...

- Challenge and alter negative career thoughts and take action.
- Improve ability to make good decisions.
- Make good use of support from others.

Phases of the communication, analysis, synthesis, valuing, and execution (CASVE) cycle

Kits

FLYS-3431-KT CTI Introductory Kit ~~$438-VALUE~~ $397

Manuals, books, and equipment

FLYS-3432-TM CTI Professional Manual $87

Forms and booklets

FLYS-3433-BK CTI Workbook $24

FLYS-3468-BK CTI Workbooks (pkg/10) $230

FLYS-3434-TB CTI Test Booklets (pkg/25) $111

Available on PARiConnect

FLYS-10534-IC CTI i-Admins (minimum/5) $2.40 each

FLYS-10535-IS CTI Score Reports (minimum/5) $1.50 each

Note: Prices subject to change.