

"I HAVE NO CLUE
WHAT TO DO WITH MY LIFE."

Sound familiar?

Students are often expected to know exactly what they are doing next, but they may be overwhelmed with their choices. Help them find fitting programs of study and careers with the Self-Directed Search.

Help your students get a clue. Use the SDS.

Help clients and students explore their career interests

- Available online 24/7 and in print.
- Features more than 1,400 occupations, including 100 recent additions!
- Explore occupations within similar fields using career clusters.
- Self-administered, self-scored, and self-interpreted.
- Written at a seventh-grade reading level.
- Summary Codes are linked to occupations on the Department of Labor's Occupational Information Network (O*NET).
- The assessment asks users to select activities they like to do, occupations they are interested in having, and tasks they feel they're competent in and rate themselves on a variety of abilities. Users then learn their Summary Code, which tells them which of the RIASEC types they resemble most.

- The StudentSDS aligns with the American School Counselor Association (ASCA) National Model and includes activities for classroom use.
- The SDS website (self-directed-search.com) is mobile friendly.
- Interactive SDS reports link to occupational information on the O*NET, active job openings, and recent salary data and allow users to sort and filter by Holland Code, education level, career cluster, and more.
